If they wanted to help the city AND themselves, they'd have billboards saying:

MEMPHIS CRIME RATE DROPS 22% IN LAST TEN YEARS. THANK OUR POLICE OFFICERS !

The 9:01: Bad billboards, 'Bad Sign' at Grammys, plain talk on the road and more

The Memphis Police Association has peppered the city with billboards advertising the city's 2016 homicide record. A good call?

Memphis Music Hall of Famer announces a performance of a signature Memphis blues song at Sunday's Grammy Awards.

We look at some out of state stories with local resonance.

Even if you don't like the billboards, there's one road sign we can all hopefully agree on.
